Maiden's Blush Is the Ideal Variety for Carnation Benches

Gladiolus From Our Long Island Farm

MAIDEN'S BLUSH

We have enjoyed a very favorable growing season on our Long Island farm and will have a fine lot of bulbs to ship out. Inspection is invited during the growing season for we pride ourselves on the condition of our stocks as being "100 per cent true to name," and those of you with experience in purchasing from irresponsible sources will appreciate this value.

In addition to the popular standard kinds, we are featuring some newer varieties that show decided merit. They are the selection of hundreds of kinds that we have examined or tried out both in this country and Europe, and we offer them to the trade with the feeling that they will all become popular when known.

MAIDEN'S BLUSH

In featuring this wonderful variety, we feel that we are offering to the trade the best money-making Gladiolus in existence. With its beautiful enchantress pink color, extreme earliness and high percentage of flowers, it combines all that can be desired in any Gladiolus. We guarantee our stock 100 per cent true to name.

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT—READ THIS!

From the "Florists' Exchange," May 17th, 1924:

"The beautiful Gladiolus Maiden's Blush is now coming into the market from various local greenhouses, having been brought into bloom in from 75 to 80 days. It is finding a large sale, most of the stock arriving being quickly taken up by a few of the prominent retailers in Chicago. Fleischmann Floral Co. had this new variety on exhibition in its large show window on Jackson Boulevard the past week, with a large display sign calling attention to it. It is predicted that when the stock of bulbs of Maiden's Blush is obtainable in quantity, it will be very generally grown in large volume throughout the United States, both for forcing and outdoor culture. This grand variety is not only fine for cut flower purposes, but the fact that it can be bloomed in such a comparatively short time makes it particularly valuable to the florist trade, especially for greenhouse forcing. Bulbs of the first size invariably produce from two to three good flowering spikes, thereby providing good profits for the grower. Growers interested in Gladiolus culture will, we believe, do well to keep an eye on this excellent newcomer in the Gladiolus family."

From the "Florists' Review," May 17th, 1924:

"Growers state that they regularly get two and three flowering spikes from each first-size bulb of Gladiolus Primulinus Maiden's Blush."

John R. Mitchell of Madison, N. J., writes as follows:

"The bulbs were planted February 18th and we started cutting May 5th. Prices realized were $3.00 per dozen wholesale. We planted the bulbs in boxes with six inches of soil and they were put into a temperature of 55 to 60 degrees at night and 65 to 70 in the day."

Walker & Lubin of Laperre, Mich., write:

"Your Maiden's Blush Gladiolus were fine; got about one and one-half flowers per bulb of the second size planted; March 1st, 1924."

SOUVENIR

Another Primulinus of the Grandiflora type that has been highly praised by all who have seen or grown it. Flowers are pure canary yellow and the spikes are tall and graceful with the flowers well spaced. As a forcing yellow it is without an equal and for outdoors it is also very valuable.

Leading European florists were quick to recognize the value of this variety and it is now the leading yellow with them. When cut the flowers open up well in water and retain their color.

1¼ inch to 1½ inch..... 9.00 80.00

General Petain. As a garden Gladiolus this variety is wonderful and has a special value when grouped in perennial borders. Has wide, heavy foliage and large individual flowers. Color is a pleasing salmon red, slightly marked. Medium height and late. 1½ inch and up..... 7.50 65.00

LENA GRAETZ. This variety is now considered as the leading commercial white. It has all of the qualities demanded of a first class Gladiolus, being a free bloomer, sturdy and healthy grower and producing well formed spikes of pure white with very slight throat markings. We have the largest stock in the country. 1½ inch and up..... 6.00 50.00

MONTBRETIAS

MONTBRETIAS

We have been paying special attention to these beautiful bulbous plants and have now developed nice stocks in several fine varieties covering the usual range of colors. The flowers attracted much favorable comment wherever shown by us last summer and we are sure that florists will not go wrong in making a planting, for their gracefulness permits of lighter decorations than possible with Gladiolus. Many of the varieties produce three and four flowers to each bulb, thus reducing the cost per flower to a nominal sum.

	Per 100	Per 1,000
Croesus. Very large apricot yellow. Height 24 inches. One of the finest. Very late.....	$8.50	$75.00
Etoile de Feu. Very graceful soft red with orange throat. Height 24 inches.....	6.00	50.00
King Edmund. A sturdy grower of medium height. Fine orange-yellow flowers measuring two ins. across	6.00	50.00
Macrospila. A beautiful combination of red and yellow. Free bloomer, producing three and four flowers to every bulb. Height 14 inches..	5.00	40.00
Meteor. A graceful variety of orange with red tips on backs of flowers. Very prolific and earliest of the list.....	4.50	35.00
Rheingold. Large star-shaped flowers of pure golden yellow. Height 24 inches. Extra fine....	8.00	70.00
Solfatare. Freesia-like flowers of pure yellow with foliage of bluish brown. Height 14 in....	5.50	45.00
Speciosa. Pleasing orange-red with yellow throat. Fine form and produces several flowers to each bulb	6.00	50.00

YELLOW CALLAS (Elliottiana)

Prices of these beautiful yellow Callas are considerably cheaper this year. We urge growers to plant them liberally, as they command a good price in pots or cut. They also make fine bedding plants. 2½ inches and up.....

FANCY LEAVED CALADIUMS

Every florist can find many profitable uses for these bulbs, for their ornamental foliage gives a tropical effect not produced by any other plants. It is the ideal decorative summer plant for store windows and window boxes. When planted outside, a rich moist soil in a semi-shaded position is preferable.

We are offering one of the finest collections of named kinds ever listed in this country.

Frederick Bause. Very beautiful, deep rose center overlaid with a bloom like the bloom on a ripe plum; green border; fine grower and bedder. Height 18 inches.

Candidum. Very choice, strong grower and effective bedder; white leaf with dark green veins and ribs. Height 24 inches.

D. M. Cook. Rampant grower. Crinkled green leaf, red center and ribs, red spots in green border. Height 24 inches.

Minna (Hoffman) Nehrling. Finest Brazilian sort; very transparent rose leaf, with waxy cream ribs and veins; very narrow jade green border. To be known as Minna Nehrling. Height 12 inches.

Bilontra. Lavender leaf with bluish green border; very rare and unusual; semi-dwarf growth of stem. Height 15 inches.

Scarlet Pimperel. A very fine English sort; very bright red center and ribs, pale border; beautiful coloring. Height 18 inches.

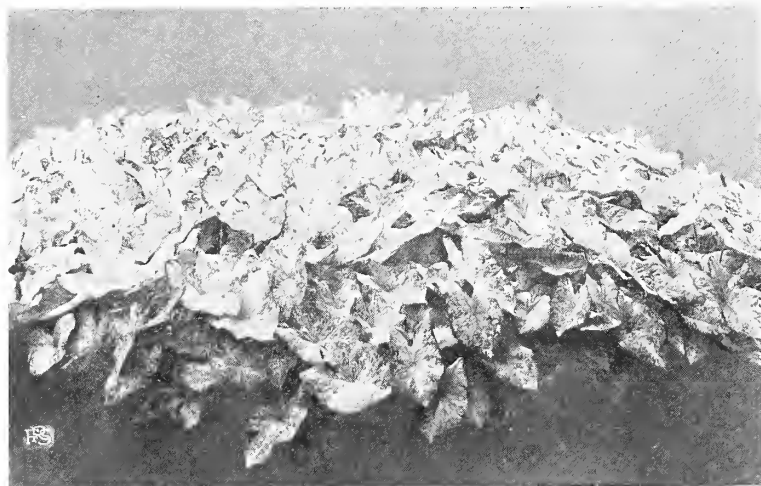

Virginale. Wonderfully mottled and blotched border of different shades of green on a silvery white transparent field. Very choice. Height 20 inches.

Bahia. Very light cream, dark green veins, spotted red. Height 18 inches.

Attala. Green leaf, red veins and spots, one of the tallest. Height 30 inches.

Any of the above, per doz., $2.50; per 100, $17.50; per 1,000, $150.00.

The Surest Way to Have a Supply of Daffodils for 1926 is to Grow Them Yourself

THE LAST YEAR!

Planting Stocks of Popular Market Varieties

AFTER 1925 the embargo on all Narcissus and Daffodil bulbs goes into effect and means that a demand for over eighty million of these bulbs will exist that must be taken care of by domestic production and the opportunity is thereby given every grower to engage in what will undoubtedly prove a very profitable and interesting business.

These bulbs are now being produced in limited quantities in every section of the country and we predict that they will be as generally grown as Gladiolus within a few years. They are perfectly hardy and require no more skilled attention than that given to other bulbous crops with which growers in this country are familiar.

The Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., has just published a bulletin on the production of Narcissus bulbs that can be had free for the asking, and we are at all times ready to give customers the benefit of our own growing experience, both in this country and abroad.

With the idea of encouraging the domestic production, we are offering our own guaranteed disease-free planting stock direct from our Holland fields in such leading kinds as have proved adapted to this country. The offer is made in bulk, which is the same method of trading as that used in Holland, and at the prices as shown we will supply the run of the crop in planting sizes after the larger bulbs have been taken out. This will give a greater number of bulbs to the bushel and in such sizes as should make merchantable bulbs in one year.

This is the first time that American growers have had an opportunity of purchasing high class planting stock with a guarantee that they are starting with absolutely disease-free bulbs and on the same basis as generally traded in in the old country.

Every Florist Can Find Many Valuable Uses for "Peat Moss"

Useful as a potting compost or for greenhouse benches, seed beds, soil rectifying and for making cuttings.

Much has been written recently of the value of this material to every grower. In Europe it has long been used extensively but its many valuable uses are only now becoming generally known in this country. We supply burlapped bales that weigh 220 pounds when packed. Weight decreases somewhat as bales dry out. We are the trade's largest handlers of peat moss.

Per bale, $3.50.
Per 10 bales, $32.00. Per 100 bales, $300.00.

Read what the "Southern Florist" has to say of this material:

"The use of imported peat moss, or turf mull as a constituent of bench and potted soils, and as a humus for the conserving of moisture and fertility, has probably not become extensive in the South, but Southern growers will be interested to know that numbers of the nation's leading producers are using and highly recommending it. Some use it for outdoor growing, as shown by the following expression from a large nursery company: "We have been using peat moss on our greenhouse benches and also mixed in our potting soils. We use it to a considerable extent in our field in planting the different kinds of broad-leaved evergreens, like rhododendrons and azaleas, and get very good results."

It appears that men who have learned the growing game in Europe, where this material has long been used, are the quickest to avail themselves of its use. Such a grower, at Washington City, states that he uses it with splendid results for propagating cuttings, both hard and soft wood, and for building up impoverished soil.

A Pennsylvania grower says that "We have found that peat moss is a wonder-worker when put through a $\frac{3}{8}$ inch sieve and mixed with soil used for growing such seedlings as are subject to damping off, as calceolarias, peonies and primulas. It is also a valuable addition to the soil for growing seeds of all kinds."

A Geneva, N. Y., concern speaks of using the granulated moss as "a mulch on young evergreens, etc., a coarser moss in the stables as an absorbent and also for packing the roots of peonies and other herbaceous plants."
